Repeated exceeding of the usage limits may lead to temporary suspension or termination of your access to Chroma Services. If Customer exceeds a usage limit, Chroma may work with Customer to seek to reduce their usage so that it conforms to that limit. If, notwithstanding Chroma's efforts, Customer is unable or unwilling to abide by a usage limit, Customer will execute an Order Form for additional quantities of the applicable Services promptly upon Chroma's request, and/or pay any invoice for excess usage in accordance with Section 5. - 3.5 Open Source Software Licenses. Open source software licenses for components of the Chroma Services released under an open source license constitute separate written agreements. To the limited extent that the open source software licenses expressly supersede these Terms, the open source licenses govern your agreement with Chroma for the use of the components of the Chroma Services released under an open source license.
- 3.6 Removal or Suspension of Customer Application and Data. Customer understands that all information (such as data files, written text, computer software, music, audio files or other sounds, photographs, videos or other images) to which you may have access as part of, or through your use of, the Chroma Services are the sole responsibility of the person from which such content originated. - 3.7 Administrative Access to Chromatic. Customer agrees not to (a) access (or attempt to access) the administrative interface of Chromatic by any means other than through the interface that is provided by Chroma in connection with the Chroma Services, unless you have been specifically allowed to do so in a separate agreement with Chroma, or (b) engage in any activity that interferes with or disrupts the Chroma Services (or the servers and networks which are connected to Chromatic).

4. NON-CHROMA PROVIDERS

- 4.1. Non-Chroma Applications and Customer Data. If Customer installs or enables a Non-Chroma Application for use with a Service, Customer grants Chroma permission to allow the provider of that Non-Chroma Application to access Your Data as required for the interoperation of that Non-Chroma Application with the Service. Chroma is not responsible for any disclosure, modification or deletion of Your Data resulting from access by a Non-Chroma Application.

- 4.2. Integration with Non-Chroma Applications. Chroma Services may contain features designed to interoperate with Non-Chroma Applications. To use such features, Customer may be required to obtain access to Non-Chroma Applications from their providers, and may be required to grant Chroma access to Your account(s) on the Non-Chroma Applications. If the provider of a Non-Chroma Application ceases to make the Non-Chroma Application available for interoperation with the corresponding Service features on reasonable terms, Chroma may cease providing those Service features without entitling Customer to any refund, credit, or other compensation.
- 4.3. Non-Chroma Content. Chroma Services may include hyperlinks to other web sites or content or resources or email content. Chroma may have no control over any web sites or resources which are provided by companies or persons other than Chroma. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Chroma is not responsible for the quality or availability of any such external sites or resources, and does not endorse any advertising, products or other materials on or available from such web sites or resources. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Chroma is not liable for any loss or damage which may be incurred by you or your Users as a result of the availability of those external sites or resources, or as a result of any reliance placed by you on the completeness, accuracy or existence of any advertising, products or other materials on, or available from, such web sites or resources.

5. FEES; PAYMENT TERMS; AUDIT.

- 5.1. Fees and Expenses. For purchased Chroma Services and Support, Customer will pay Chroma the fees set forth in the applicable Subscription Order, Online Order, and/or SOW. Fees for Services may be based on certain metrics, parameters, and/or limitations as set forth in Chroma's Services descriptions, Subscription Orders, or in specific SOWs, including for example, and without limitation, metrics related to the size of Customer's computing environment, application count, application size, and the number of developers using Chromatic.
- 5.2. Payment Terms. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties in an applicable Subscription Order or SOW, Chroma will charge Customer credit card specified in an applicable order at the interval indicated in Chroma fees and payment policies or invoice Customer as follows: (a) for Services, upon execution of the applicable Subscription Order and (b) for Consulting and Training Services, monthly in arrears as such Services are delivered by Chroma. Customer will pay all invoices issued by Chroma under Subscription Orders and SOWs in full within thirty (30) days of the date of each invoice, without setoff, counterclaim, or deduction of any kind. All late credit card payments or invoiced amounts not paid by Customer when due will accrue interest at the rate of one percent (1.5%) per month or the maximum amount permitted by law, whichever is lower. Chroma may, in its sole discretion and upon ten (10) days prior written notice to Customer, suspend the provision of Services or Support, as applicable, if any invoice is more than thirty (30) days past due. This right of suspension will not limit any other of Chroma's rights or remedies related to Customer's failure to pay. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Customer waives all claims relating to charges unless claimed within 60 days after the charge (this does not affect your credit card issuer rights). Charges are solely based on Chroma's measurements of your use of the Chroma Services, unless otherwise agreed to in writing. Nothing in these Terms obligates Chroma to extend credit to any party. Chroma may change its fees and payment policies for the Chroma Services by notifying you at least fifteen (15) days before the beginning of the billing cycle in which such change will take effect. Changes to the fees or payment policies will be posted on the Chromatic website (or such other URL Chroma may provide from time to time). Customer acknowledges and agrees that any credit card and related billing and payment information that you provide to Chroma may be shared by Chroma with companies who work on Chroma's behalf, such as accounting firms, payment processors and/or credit agencies, solely for the purposes of checking credit, effecting payment to Chroma and servicing your account.
- 5.3. Refunds & Cancellation. Customer may cancel and receive a full refund of fees paid within the first thirty (30) days of the initial service provisioning date for orders related to Chromatic. Chroma reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to issue any refunds in the form of credit towards future Chroma Services. Any subsequent Chromatic orders associated to a Customer's user account or previously associated web domains are not eligible for refund. Customer may only request a cancellation or refund via written notice to Chroma. In the event of cancellation, Customer is responsible for all fees incurred.
- 5.3. Taxes. All fees and expenses charged by Chroma under this Agreement are exclusive of any taxes, duties, or similar charges imposed by any government, and Customer agrees to pay for any and all federal, state, or local sales, use, excise, privilege, or other taxes, duties or assessments, however designated or levied, relating to this Agreement, exclusive of taxes based on Chroma's net income. If Customer is required to pay any withholding tax, charge, or levy in respect of any payments due to Chroma hereunder, Customer agrees to gross up payments actually made to Chroma such that Chroma receives sums due hereunder in full and free of any deduction for any such withholding tax, charge, or levy.
- 5.4. Audit. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of six (6) months thereafter (the "Audit Period"), Customer agrees to keep and maintain complete and accurate records sufficient to verify Customer's compliance with the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, payment of applicable Support fees ("Records"). Such Records must include, at a minimum, information regarding Customer's computing environment and systems on which Support fees are based, including, for example, and without limitation, information relating to Customer's installation and usage of Chromatic on Customer's systems. During the Audit Period, Chroma (or its authorized representative) will have the right, upon ten (10) days prior written notice to Customer, to have an independent third party (subject to Customer's approval not to be unreasonably withheld) perform an inspection and audit of the Records. Audits will be performed during Customer's normal business hours and in a manner that does not unreasonably interfere with Customer's normal business operations. If an Audit reveals that Customer has underpaid Chroma for Support, Customer shall promptly pay such underpaid amounts. Chroma will bear the costs of the Audit provided, however, that if the Audit reveals underpayment by Customer by more than five percent (5%), Customer will reimburse Chroma for the cost of the Audit.

6. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS.

Except as expressly set forth herein, nothing in this Agreement conveys any right, title, or interest in or to the Chroma Retained Property to Customer or any other third party.

- 6.4 Feedback. Customer may, in its sole discretion or at the invitation by Chroma, provide Chroma with suggestions, enhancement requests, comments, recommendations, or other feedback related to Services provided by Chroma ("Feedback"). - 6.6 Reservation of Rights. Chroma reserves all rights not expressly granted to Customer in this Agreement. Except as expressly stated, nothing herein shall be construed to (1) directly or indirectly grant to a receiving party any title to or ownership of a providing party's intellectual property rights in services or materials furnished by such providing party hereunder, or (2) preclude such providing party from developing, marketing, using, licensing, modifying or otherwise freely exploiting services or materials that are similar to or related to the Support, services, or materials provided hereunder.
- 6.7 Copyright Policy. Customer agree to set up a process to respond to notices of alleged infringement that comply with the United States' Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA notices"). - 12.9 No Waiver. The failure of a party to enforce any provision or exercise any right under this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of such provision or right and shall not preclude such party from enforcing such provision or exercising such right at any later time.
- 12.10 Force Majeure. Except for the obligation to pay sums due hereunder, neither party will be liable to the other for any delay or failure to perform due to causes beyond its reasonable control.

- 12.13 Counterparts and Signatures. Subscription Orders and SOWs may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one and the same instrument. Facsimile and electronic copies of signatures shall have the same effect as originals. If a party elects to sign Subscription Orders or SOWs electronically, it expressly acknowledges and agrees that such electronic signature is the legal equivalent of, and has the same force and effect as, a manual signature.
